SPARTANBURG, S.C. - Georgia Southern Rifle student-athlete Rosemary Kramer has been named the Southern Conference Shooter of the Month for the third time of the 2018-19 campaign for her efforts in air rifle in the month of February.

Kramer, a senior from Culloden, Georgia, shot a 596 air rifle, the third-best in program history, when it counted the most as she qualified for the NCAA Air Rifle Championship with her performance at the NCAA Qualifier. She has won the last six air rifle meets she's competed in and nine for the season. She also took home medalist honors at the two February meets as well in aggregate. She averaged 594.5 in air rifle for the month.

The 2019 SoCon Air Rifle champion, she was a first-team All-SoCon selection in both smallbore and air rifle and the SoCon Air Rifle Athlete of the Year once again. She shot a school- and SoCon-record 598 in air rifle on Oct. 27 and matched that 598 on Sunday at the SoCon Championships.

Kramer will become the first Georgia Southern rifle student-athlete to shoot at the NAAs in the six-year history of the program this Saturday. She is also the first Southern Conference student-athlete to qualify for the NCAA air rifle since William Thomas of ETSU qualified in 1985. She holds the school records in the air rifle and aggregate and holds the 11 of the top 12 all-time highest air rifle scores in school history.
